1.0 INSPECTION

1.1 Seller's facilities, equipment, materials, records, and the Products and Services purchased and to be purchased under this Order are subject to Buyer's audit, inspection, and acceptance. Seller and all subcontractors of Seller agree that Buyer may inspect any Products or Services during any stage of their manufacture, construction, preparation, delivery or completion. Buyer and Buyer's customers have the right to enter onto Seller's or Seller's subcontractors' premises at reasonable times to inspect the facility, supplies, materials and any of the Buyer's property covered by this Order. Seller agrees to provide any and all reasonable or pertinent supporting documentation required by Buyer or Buyer's Customers in the course of such inspection. The method of inspection may be by selective, random or 100% sampling, at the sole discretion of Buyer. At Buyer's request, Seller and Seller's subcontractors shall submit production and quality test reports and related data. All costs associated with this section are the responsibility of Seller. Buyer's inspection of the Products or Services, whether during manufacture, prior to delivery or within a reasonable time after delivery, shall not constitute acceptance of any work-in-process or finished Products. Payment for the Products shipped and Services performed shall not constitute acceptance. Products and Services shall only be deemed accepted when they have actually been counted, inspected, and tested by Buyer and found to be in conformance with this Order. Nothing in this Order shall relieve Seller from the obligation of testing, inspection and quality control. Seller and all subcontractors of Seller also agree to provide Buyer access to all pertinent information, including but not limited to, books, records, payroll data, receipts, correspondence and other documents and materials in the possession or under the control of Seller, or otherwise relating to any of Seller's obligations under this Order or any payments requested by Seller pursuant to this Order. Buyer will have the right at any reasonable time to send its authorized representatives to examine all such information. Seller shall maintain all pertinent information relating to this Order for: (a) the period of time required by or relating to the relevant or applicable requirements of Buyer's Customers or (b) four (4) years after completion of Services or delivery of Products pursuant to this Order, whichever period is longer.

Seller and all subcontractors of Seller shall adhere to all quality, testing, development, and production approval programs and processes of Buyer and Buyer's Customers on an ongoing basis, with the objective of delivering zero defects for all Products.

2.2 Any failure to fully comply with any of these provisions shall constitute a material breach of Seller's obligations under this Order. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is Seller's obligation to ensure that appropriate testing, inspection, conformity and quality control is performed on the Products and Services and nothing in this Order shall relieve Seller of that obligation. All completed Products shall be packaged and labeled in accordance with Buyer's requirements. All Products shall permanently bear Buyer's part number and name or code name, including any applicable bar coding identification, Seller's part number, and Seller's date of manufacture, unless otherwise agreed by Buyer in writing. Seller will supply samples in accordance with the applicable quality standards as set forth above as requested by Buyer.

2.3 In addition to the foregoing, Seller shall meet all supplier quality management and regulatory requirements of or applicable to Buyer and Buyer's Customers as revised from time to time, and, without limiting the foregoing, shall comply with the requirements of any accredited professional society that Seller is registered with, such as an accredited ISO 9000 Registrar. Seller must comply with the provisions and meet all standards imposed by ISO 9001: 2008, unless Buyer informs Seller in writing that it need not do so and instructs Seller to comply with a different standard, in which case such alternate standard shall be applicable in addition to all other applicable standards and requirements. Seller shall, if requested by Buyer, furnish a certificate indicating compliance with all applicable standards.

Any unauthorized change of any type whatsoever shall constitute a material breach of Seller's obligations under this Order. Buyer may, through its purchasing department or other authorized representative, request changes to Products or Services at any time for its convenience upon written notice to Seller (written notice may include a written agreement signed by Buyer, a change order issued by Buyer's purchasing department, or an email from an authorized representative of Buyer. Seller will implement the changes and this Order will be deemed amended to incorporate the changes; provided, however, if the requested changes will increase or decrease the cost of performance or the time required to perform, Seller will advise Buyer in writing within twenty (20) days of Buyer's change request, and the parties will negotiate an equitable adjustment in the Price to accommodate such increased costs. Any Services performed by Seller in addition to or different from those stated on the Order without Buyer's prior written notice, as indicated above, shall be at Seller's own risk and without reimbursement of Seller's costs from Buyer. Although Seller may request a price increase for increased costs, Seller is not entitled to and will not request an increase in its profit based on changes. Seller may not refuse delivery of Products or Services while the parties discuss pricing alterations based on changes. Seller must implement the changes and continue performance during the pendency of any dispute. All changes and any agreed changes to the Price or schedule will be implemented pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Order.

4.0 CONDITIONS TO AND TIMING OF PAYMENT:

4.1 Unless otherwise instructed by Buyer in writing, Seller will invoice Buyer upon Buyer's receipt of the Products and/or completion of Seller's performance of Services, whichever occurs later. Buyer objects to any terms or conditions referred to or attached to Seller's invoices. Seller agrees that such terms and conditions shall be of no force or effect, and Buyer's payment of the invoice shall be made only in accordance with the terms of this Order and shall not be deemed an acceptance of any such terms and conditions. Unless a different period is indicated by Buyer on the face of this Order, payment is due net thirty (30) calendar days from the date of Buyer's receipt of Products or completion of Seller's performance of Services or from the dates Buyer receives an invoice, whichever occurs later. If there is a dispute that is not resolved within that period, payment will be due ten (10) calendar days after the dispute is resolved and a corrected invoice is received. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer's obligation to make payments to Seller for Products and Services purchased pursuant to this Order are conditioned upon Buyer's receipt of payment with respect to such Products from any applicable Buyer's Customer. To the extent that Seller does not invoice Buyer with respect to any Products which are purchased pursuant to this Order within one (1) year of Seller's delivery of such Products, Buyer shall have no obligation to pay Seller for such Products. Any claims of Seller with respect to payment by Buyer for Products or Services under this Order must be submitted to Buyer in writing within one (1) year of the date on which the Products are received by Seller or the Services are completed or be deemed waived and Seller shall be estopped from pursuing all such claims. Any legal action against Buyer for payment must be commenced within one (1) year of the date on which payment was due or be forever barred.

These warranties shall be in addition to all other warranties, express, implied or statutory. These warranties shall survive inspection, test, delivery, acceptance, use, resale, payment by Buyer, and the termination, expiration, or cancellation of this Order. The warranties in this Order may not be limited or disclaimed by Seller. Buyer's approval of Seller's design, material, process, drawing, Services, specifications or the like shall not be construed to relieve Seller of the warranties set forth herein, nor shall a waiver by Buyer of any drawing or specification request for one or more items constitute a waiver of any such requirements for any other items to be delivered hereunder unless so stated by Buyer in writing. Seller agrees to waive the expiration of the warranty period as to failures or defects discovered after such warranty period which, in Buyer's or Buyer's Customer's sole discretion, are deemed significant, or a defect is discovered which, in Buyer's or Buyer's Customer's sole discretion, constitutes a threat of damage to property or to the health and safety of any person.

If requested by Buyer, Seller promptly will evaluate the Products to determine the root cause of the non-conformance and provide Buyer with an analysis of the non-conforming Products and Seller's plan to correct the non-conformance in the Products at issue and those shipped in the future. Title to Products designated for return by Buyer will immediately revert to Seller upon notice to Seller of Buyer's intent to return the Products. Payment for non-conforming Products shall not constitute an acceptance thereof, limit or impair Buyer's right to revoke acceptance or assert any legal or equitable remedy, or relieve Seller of responsibility for non-conforming Products, defects, quality or warranty issues

During the period of such delay or failure to perform by Seller, Buyer, at its option, may purchase Products or Services from other sources and reduce its obligations under this Order by such quantities, without liability to Seller or Buyer, or may have Seller provide the Products from other sources in quantities and at times requested by Buyer and at the Price set forth in this Order. If requested by the Buyer, Seller shall, within ten (10) days of such request, provide adequate assurances that the delay shall not exceed thirty (30) days. If the delay lasts more than thirty (30) days or the Seller does not provide adequate assurance that the delay will cease within thirty (30) days, Buyer may immediately cancel the Order without liability. Force Majeure shall not be grounds for seeking any price increases.

16.0 INDEMNIFICATION:

16.1 Seller hereby agrees to indemnify, hold harmless and fully defend Buyer and all of its past, present, and future affiliates, customers, officers, directors, employees, contractors, and agents (“Indemnified Parties”) from and against any and all claims, causes of action, costs, charges, damages, expenses, penalties, suits, losses, liens or liabilities of any type (including reasonable attorney fees, expert fees and litigation expenses) however incurred and regardless of the theory of liability or recovery, including, without limitation, tort, negligence, contract, warranty, and strict liability (“Claims”) arising out of, resulting from or related to (i) any death, injury, or property damage caused, in whole or in part, by the acts or omissions of the Seller, its officers, directors, employees, contractors, subcontractors, or agents (“Indemnifying Parties”) arising from or connected in any way with the provision of Products or the performance of Services under this Order, (ii) the breach of any obligation, representation or warranty under this Order by the Indemnifying Parties,

F-840-004-A: Supplier Quality Clauses

including without limitation the delivery of Products and Services that are delayed, defective, non-conforming, subject to recall or other similar field service requirements, shipped in quantities less than those released by Buyer, or that otherwise fail to comply with this Order, and (iii) any actual or claimed infringement or misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Rights under any circumstances, whether related to the manufacture, sale, or use of the Products or Services (a) alone, (b) in combination by reason of their content, design or structure, or (c) in combination in accordance with Seller's recommendations; (iv) the Indemnifying Parties' actual or claimed non-compliance with or violation of any applicable local, provincial, state or federal law, rule or regulation, including, by way of example and without limitation, those laws relating to the occupational health and safety of its employees, contractors or other third parties, (v) any claim by an employee, contractor or other third party of the Indemnifying Parties for wages, benefits or other compensation, (vi) the Indemnifying Parties' failure to properly withhold and/or pay any taxes or government charges, fees, tariffs or levies, including without limitation, amounts for its employees and contractors or amounts related to the performance of the Services; and (vii) any negligent or intentional act or omission of the Indemnifying Parties. Seller will reimburse the Indemnified Parties for all losses, costs, and expenses incurred as a result of such Claims, including court costs and attorneys fees. In addition, in the event of a Claim of infringement of Intellectual Property Rights, if the use of any portion of the Products provided hereunder is enjoined as a result of any suit, then Seller, at no expense to Buyer or Buyer's Customers and at Buyer's sole option, will either procure the right for Buyer or Buyer's Customers to continue using the Products or replace or modify the Products so that they become non-infringing and are of equivalent or superior functionality as determined by Buyer in its sole discretion. If Buyer, in its sole discretion, does not consider either of the foregoing alternatives to be acceptable, Buyer may return all or any part of the Products for a full refund of the total amounts paid for the affected Products and assert all other remedies available to Buyer under this Order or under controlling law. Seller will not enter into any settlement order that affects any Indemnified Parties without Buyer's prior written consent. Buyer may actively participate in any suit or proceeding, through its own counsel at Seller's expense. Seller's indemnification obligations will survive the termination, cancellation, or expiration of this Order. Buyer shall not have an obligation to indemnify Seller under any circumstances. To the extent that this Order calls for work to be performed upon property owned or controlled by Buyer, it is agreed that Seller will keep the premises and work free and clear of all liens, and furnish Buyer proper affidavits, releases and/or waivers certifying thereto. Seller further agrees all such work will remain at Seller's risk prior to written acceptance by Buyer and Seller will replace at its own expense all work damaged or destroyed by fire, force or violence of the elements or any other cause whatsoever.

17.0 BUYER'S TERMINATION FOR CAUSE:

17.1 Buyer has the right to cancel or terminate all or any part of this Order without liability if Seller (a) repudiates or breaches any of the terms, conditions or warranties in this Order, including without limitation, Seller's warranties, (b) fails to remain competitive with respect to quality, price, standards, or technology required under this Order, (c) fails or threatens not to perform Services or deliver Products as required under this Order, or (d) takes or fails to take action that, in Buyer's sole discretion, creates a reasonable possibility Seller will not fulfill its obligations under this Order or any other order, contract, agreement or obligation, and does not correct such failure or breach within ten (10) days (or such shorter period of time as is commercially reasonable under the circumstances) after receipt of written notice from Buyer specifying such failure or breach. In the event of any such cancellation, Buyer without prejudice to any other rights available to it for breach of contract, shall have the right (a) to refuse delivery of Products or performance of Services, (b) to return to Seller Products already received, to recover from Seller all payments made therefore including freight, storage, handling and other expenses and to be relieved from liability for any future payments to Seller, (c) to recover any advanced payments to Seller for undelivered or returned Products or work to be performed, and (d) to purchase Products or Services elsewhere and charge Seller with any resultant losses. No returned Products shall be replaced without Buyer's written replacement order. Any cancellation under this Order shall not excuse the Seller from performing un-cancelled work or Services. In such event, in addition to termination, Buyer shall be entitled to seek any or all remedies provided in this Order and those provided at law or in equity. Buyer shall also have the right to seek and Seller agrees that Buyer is entitled to receive specific performance by Seller of its obligations under this Order. If Buyer terminates or cancels this Order for cause and it is later determined that the cancellation for cause was not warranted, the termination or cancellation will be deemed one for convenience pursuant to the terms of this Order. Unless Seller's failure to make timely delivery of Products and or Services is excused in accordance with the provisions of Section 15.0, Seller's failure to make timely delivery, or Seller's breach of any of the other terms and conditions of this Order shall constitute sufficient cause for Buyer, at its option and in its sole discretion, to terminate this Order either in whole or in part and to charge Seller for any Damages Buyer or Buyer's Customers may sustain as a result of Seller's default.

18.0 SELLER'S TERMINATION FOR CAUSE:

18.1 After the Acceptance Date, Seller may terminate this Order only for cause based on Buyer's material breach of an obligation under this Order and only after providing Buyer with forty-five (45) days advance written notice and a reasonable opportunity to cure any such breach. Buyer shall have no less than forty-five (45) days to cure a material breach after receipt of the foregoing notice. Seller shall not have any right to set off or withhold shipment pending any dispute under this Order.

19.0 BUYER'S TERMINATION FOR INSOLVENCY:

19.1 Buyer may immediately terminate this Order without liability to Seller in the event of the happening of any of the following or any other comparable event: (a) insolvency of the Seller; (b) filing of a voluntary petition in bankruptcy by Seller; (c) filing involuntary petition in bankruptcy against Seller; (d) appointment of a receiver or trustee for Seller or (e) execution of an assignment for the benefit of creditors by Seller, provided that such petition, appointment, or assignment is not vacated or nullified within thirty (30) days of such event. Seller shall immediately notify Borrower in writing of the occurrence of any of the foregoing events.

20.0 BUYER'S TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE:

20.1 Buyer may terminate all or any part of this Order immediately at any time for its convenience by delivering written notice to Seller ("Termination for Convenience"). Upon Termination for Convenience, Buyer shall have no liability whatsoever to Seller except as expressly set forth in this Section. Upon Termination for Convenience, Buyer shall pay to Seller the following amounts without duplication: (a) the agreed Price or actual cost of Products or Services which have been completed pursuant to firm releases in accordance with this Order prior to Buyer's notice of Termination for Convenience and not previously paid for, and (b) the actual, documented costs of work-in-process and raw materials incurred by Seller consistent with Buyer's releases prior to Buyer's notice of Termination for Convenience in a good faith and commercially reasonable effort to provide the Products or Services subject to this Order to the extent such costs are reasonable in amount and are allocable or apportionable under generally accepted accounting principles to the terminated portion of this Order, less, however, the reasonable value or cost (whichever is higher) of any Products or materials used or sold by Seller with Buyer's written consent, and the costs of any damaged or destroyed Products or material. Buyer will make no payment for finished Products, work-in-process, or raw materials fabricated or procured by Seller in amounts in excess of those authorized in Buyer's firm delivery releases nor for any undelivered Products which are in Seller's standard stock or which are readily marketable. Payments made under this Paragraph shall not exceed the aggregate purchase price payable by Buyer for finished Products which would be produced by Seller under those buyer delivery or release schedules outstanding at the date of the notice of Buyer's Termination of Convenience. Buyer shall not be liable for and shall not be required to make payments to Seller, directly on account of claims by Seller's subcontractors, for loss of anticipated profit, unobserved overhead, interest on claims, product development and engineering costs, facilities and equipment rearrangement costs or rental, unamortized depreciation costs, or general and administrative burden charges from termination of this Order. Within sixty (60) days from the effective date of termination, Seller shall submit a comprehensive termination claim to Buyer with sufficient supporting data to permit Buyer's payment hereunder, and shall thereafter promptly furnish such supplemental and supporting information as Buyer shall request. Buyer, or its agents, shall have the right to audit and examine all books, records, facilities, work, material, inventories, and other items relating to any claim of Seller.

21.0 STOP WORK ORDERS

21.1 Buyer may at any time by written order, stop all or any part of the work under this Order for a period of ninety (90) days. At any time, during such period, Buyer may with respect to all or any part of the work covered by the stop work order, either cancel the stop work order or terminate the work in accordance with this Order. To the extent the stop work order is canceled or expires, Seller shall resume work. If a stop work order has a material effect on cost of delivery, an equitable adjustment shall be made in the Price (excluding profit) or the delivery schedule or both, provided however, that no adjustment in Price or delivery shall be made under this provision (i) if the work would have been otherwise interrupted or delayed or (ii) for which an adjustment is available or excluded under any other provision of this Order. No claim for adjustment shall be allowed unless submitted to Buyer in writing (setting forth the proposed adjustment amount) within twenty (20) days after the work is terminated or the stop work order expires or is canceled, whichever first occurs.

22.0 AUDITS:

22.1 Seller shall maintain complete books and records concerning amounts charged to, Services performed for and Products delivered to Buyer. Seller grants Buyer access to its applicable books and records, facilities and premises, solely for the purpose of auditing Supplier's compliance with the terms of this Order. Seller agrees it will cooperate with Buyer to facilitate an audit, including, without limitation, by segregating and promptly producing such records as Buyer may reasonably request, and otherwise making books, records and other materials accessible to Buyer for a period of not less than one year after final payment to Seller. Any such audit or inspection conducted by Buyer or its agents or representatives will not constitute acceptance of any Services, relieve Seller of any liability under this Order or prejudice any rights or remedies available to Buyer under this Agreement at or at law. Audits shall be made upon reasonable notice to Seller and shall be conducted as not to interfere unreasonably with Seller's normal business activities. Any audit conducted pursuant to this Section 22.0 shall be at the expense of Seller.

23.0 NOTICE OF LABOR DISPUTES:

23.1 Whenever Seller has knowledge that any actual or potential labor dispute is delaying or threatens to delay the timely performance of this Order, Seller must immediately give notice thereof, including all relevant information with respect thereto to Buyer. Without limiting the forgoing, Seller agrees to provide Buyer with at least one hundred twenty (120) days' advance written notice of any labor or union contract termination date(s) and reports as to the status of Seller's discussions concerning a new labor or union contract so that Buyer and Seller can agree on an adequate supply of items hereunder in the event of a labor strike or disruption so as to avoid such disruption from effecting Buyer's business activities. Seller agrees to insert the substance of this clause, including this sentence, in any purchase order or subcontract entered into by Seller in relation to this Order.

24.0 INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR:

24.1 Seller agrees it is an independent contractor in the performance of its obligations under this Order, and Buyer is to have no control over the methods and means Seller uses to fulfill its obligations under this Order. Nothing herein will be deemed to create an employee-employer or agent-principal relationship between Seller and Buyer, its parent, subsidiaries or affiliates. Seller hereby acknowledges that Seller is not authorized to act as Buyer's agent or legal representative or to otherwise act in the name of or on behalf of Buyer, its parent, subsidiaries or affiliates. Seller, its employees, and its subcontractors shall not be considered employees of Buyer. Seller acknowledges that it is not entitled to participate in or under any employee benefit plan of Buyer or any other employment rights or benefits available to or enjoyed by active employees of Buyer. In the event that any Seller employees, subcontractors or agents providing Products or performing work or Services are found to be unacceptable to Buyer, Buyer may notify Seller of such fact and, if notified, Seller shall immediately remove said personnel from the performance of work and, if requested by Buyer, provide a qualified replacement.

25.0 SUBCONTRACTING:

25.1 Seller will not subcontract any portion of the work related to this Order without Buyer's written consent, which may be withheld for any reason at Seller's sole discretion. Seller will ensure that all subcontractors are bound by all the terms and conditions of this Order. Seller retains direct liability and responsibility for all activities subcontracted hereunder and will indemnify Buyer against any and all liability caused by the acts or omissions of Seller's subcontractors.

26.0 SURVIVAL:

26.1 All representations, warranties, indemnities and other obligations set forth herein that explicitly survive, or by their nature or context are intended to survive, termination, expiration, or cancellation of this Order shall survive, including, without limitation, the rights and obligations set forth in previous Sections.

27.0 ASSIGNMENT:

27.1 Seller may not assign or delegate any of its rights, duties or obligations under this Order at any time without the prior written consent of Buyer. In addition, Seller may not sell all or substantially all of its assets with respect to any division or facility of Seller which is manufacturing or otherwise producing or providing the Products or Services subject to this Order without the prior written consent of the Buyer. Any such attempted assignment without Buyer's prior written consent shall be null and void and Buyer shall have the right to cancel Buyer's obligations hereunder. In the event of an assignment by Seller, Seller's successor in interest shall be bound by and obligated to comply fully with all of the terms and conditions of this Order. Buyer may, in its sole discretion, assign or delegate any of its rights or obligations under this Order at any time.

28.0 COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS:

28.1 Seller warrants that Seller and any Services performed or Products delivered by Seller or its suppliers and subcontractors under this Order, will comply with all applicable federal, state, foreign and local laws, orders, ordinances, standards, rules and regulations, administrative and executive orders, and pertinent government procurement regulations, including, but not limited to, applicable rules and regulations of the U.S. Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), all applicable jurisdictions' rules and regulation concerning freedom of association, wages and working hours, safety and health, anti-discrimination and humane treatment of workers, together with any and all policies, procedures, rules and guidelines of Buyer and its customers. Seller shall, at its expense, obtain and maintain all permits and licenses as necessary, and Seller shall give notices and comply with all orders of any public authority bearing on Seller's performance under this Order. Seller shall have an affirmative duty to immediately correct any non-compliance and fully defend and indemnify Buyer against any liability caused by any non-compliance with this provision. Seller agrees that Section 2-207 of the Uniform Commercial Code shall not apply to this Order or to any invoice or acceptance form of Seller relating to this Order. It is Buyer's and Seller's intent that this Order shall exclusively control the relationship of the parties..

29.0 ETHICAL CONDUCT, ANTICORRUPTION AND UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES:

29.1 Seller agrees to deliver the Products and perform the Services hereunder with the highest ethical standards, in compliance with Buyer's and Buyer's Customers' policies, rules, codes of conduct and other standards applicable to Seller. Seller agrees it will not do business with any entity or person where Buyer or Seller believes that payoffs or similar improper or unethical practices are involved. Seller shall not have a relationship with another entity or person, or engage in any activity that results or may result in a conflict of interest, or embarrassment to Buyer, or harm to Buyer's reputation. Seller will: (i) maintain transparency and accuracy in corporate record keeping; (ii) act lawfully and with integrity in handling competitive data, proprietary information and other intellectual property; and (iii) comply with legal requirements regarding fair competition and antitrust, and accurate and truthful marketing. Seller agrees it will not engage in corrupt practices, including public or private bribery or kickbacks.

30.0 ANTIDISCRIMINATION AND HUMANE TREATMENT OF WORKERS:

30.1 Seller will employ workers on the basis of their ability to do the job and not on the basis of their personal characteristics, sexual orientation, gender identity, or beliefs. Seller will assure that Products (including parts) will not be produced, manufactured, mined, or assembled with the use of forced, prison, or indentured labor, including debt bondage, or with the use of illegal child labor in violation of International Labor Conventions for minimum age (ILO-C138) and child labor (ILO-C182). If Seller recruits contract workers, Seller will pay agency recruitment commissions, will not require workers to remain in employment for any period of time against their will, and will not impose any early termination penalties on workers. If Seller provides housing or eating facilities, Seller will assure the facilities are operated and maintained in a safe, sanitary and dignified manner. Seller will operate safe, healthy and fair working environments, including managing operations so levels of overtime do not create inhumane working conditions. Seller will pay workers at least the minimum legal wage, or where no wage laws exist, the local industry standard. Seller will assure that workers are free to join, or refrain from joining, associations of their own choosing, unless otherwise prohibited by law. Seller will not routinely require workers to work in excess of six (6) consecutive days without a rest day.

31.0 MATERIAL SAFETY DATA SHEETS/ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION:

31.1 Seller shall comply with all OSHA's hazard communication standards, all hazardous material labeling requirements, "Right to Know Laws" and any Seller and Buyer contractor safety program. Seller shall provide and update Safety Data Sheets (SDSs) for hazardous substances/materials used, furnished, delivered or brought on site to any Buyer facility by Seller. Seller shall comply with all local, provincial, state and federal laws and regulations concerning protection of human health, welfare or the environment and shall prevent the unlawful release of hazardous substances/materials into the environment. Seller shall investigate and remediate at Seller's costs any release or threat of release of any hazardous substances/materials into the environment, whether on or off site, and arising out of or related to any use, furnishing or delivery of hazardous substances/materials by any materials or products by Seller. Consistent with OSHA's hazard communication standard, 29 CFR §1910.1200, Seller will electronically provide SDS for all chemicals sold to Buyer under this Order prior to or at the time of shipment of chemicals. For all chemicals supplied or imported into the United States, Seller will certify that the chemicals are listed on the Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 USCS §2601, et. seq., chemical inventory as not prohibited or restricted, or are subject to an exemption as specified in the SDS. Seller will implement a functioning environmental management system in accordance with ISO 14001 or equivalent. Third-party registration is recommended but not required. 33.0 NO IMPLIED WAIVER:

33.1 The failure of Buyer at any time to require performance of any provision of this Order shall in no way affect the right to require such performance any time thereafter, nor shall Buyer's waiver of a breach of any provision of this Order constitute a waiver of any succeeding breach of the same or any other provision.

34.0 MODIFICATION:

34.1 This Order may only be modified by Buyer via Order amendment, revision, or release signed by an authorized representative of Buyer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties agree that, in the interest of time, certain matters of a practical business nature, such as material and product releases, changes in delivery dates, shipment instructions, variances in orders and the like may be sent by Buyer to Seller via electronic data interchange, telex or telephonic communication, without the need to resend the Order in whole or in part. The parties agree that such communications and any deliveries there under constitute part of this Order.

35.0 CUMULATIVE AND ADDITIONAL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES:

35.1 Buyer's rights and remedies as set forth herein are in addition to, and not in lieu of, all rights and remedies provided in law or equity for Seller's failure to meet its obligations under this Order.

36.0 DISPUTES; GOVERNING LAW; LIMITATIONS PERIOD:

36.1 This Order shall be considered as a contract made and to be performed in the State of California and the United States of America. The parties agree that this Order, all transactions and conduct related to this Order, and all disputes and causes of action between the parties related thereto (in contract, warranty, tort, strict liability, by statute, regulation or otherwise) shall be governed exclusively by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California and the United States of America, without regard to its conflicts of laws provisions, and any conflict of law provisions that would require application of another choice of law. The parties specifically disclaim application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods. The arbitration shall take place in Los Angeles, CA, consistent with the then-current CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration. Three neutral arbitrators will conduct the self-administered arbitration, one selected by Buyer, one selected by Seller, and the third selected by the two arbitrators so selected. The arbitrators shall be selected 45 days of commencing arbitration. There shall be appropriately limited discovery and the arbitrators will have the authority to award temporary and permanent injunctive relief, but may not award punitive or exemplary damages to either party, unless such damages arise out of or are related to Buyer's indemnification claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer may, at its sole discretion and option, proceed directly to litigation. In the event of litigation, the parties agree that the sole and exclusive venue for all disputes, claims, or causes of action, whether legal or equitable, shall be in the state or federal courts within the geographic bounds of the U.S. District Court Southern District of California, and Seller irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any and all rights to a jury trial. The arbitration provisions of this Section 36.0 shall be governed by the United States Federal Arbitration Act. Seller agrees to fulfill its delivery and other obligations under this Order without interruption during the pendency of any dispute or legal action. Seller must formally initiate any legal action or claim against Buyer for an alleged breach of any obligation related to or arising out of this Order within one (1) year of the date of the alleged breach or be forever barred from pursuing such action or claim.

37.0 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY:

37.1 Under no circumstances shall buyer, its affiliates or subsidiaries be liable for lost profits, loss of use, cost of capital, overhead, lost opportunity costs, or any indirect, incidental, consequential or punitive damages. Buyer's total liability under this order shall not exceed the price allocable to the specific products or services giving rise to the claim.

38.0 PAYMENT OF ATTORNEYS' FEES:

38.1 To the extent that either Buyer or Seller shall prevail in any lawsuit or similar legal proceeding against the other party to this Order, such prevailing party's attorneys' fees and expenses shall be paid by the non-prevailing party hereto.

39.0 SEVERABILITY:

39.1 If any term of this Order is invalid or unenforceable under any statute, regulation, ordinance, executive order or other rule of law, such term shall be deemed reformed or deleted, but only to the extent necessary to comply with such statute, regulation, ordinance, order or rule, and the remaining provisions of this Order shall remain in full force and effect. If one or more provisions of this Order is held to be unenforceable under applicable law, the unenforceable portion will not affect any other provision of this Order and this Order will be construed as if the unenforceable provision was not present, and the parties will negotiate in good faith to replace the unenforceable provision with an enforceable provision with effect nearest to that of the provision being replaced.
